

Job Opening: Global Youth Leadership Institute is seeking a Program Coordinator for Jóvenes en Acción. Please see the attached Job Description.

Summer Programming and Homestay Request: Global Youth Leadership Institute (GYLI) is seeking assistance in recruiting homestay families* for two programs, both funded by the US Department of State through the Bureau of Education and Cultural Affairs. Furthermore, family members of all ages will be invited (not required) to participate in all aspects of programming. Homestay applications can be downloaded and more information can be found on the websites below.

- Jóvenes en Acción with youth from Mexico (July 21 - August 2) <https://www.gyli.org/jovenes-en-accion-youth-action/>
- Iraqi Young Leaders Exchange Program with youth from Iraq (August 1 - 15)

<https://www.gyli.org/programs/iraqi-exchange-program/>

- o We are also coordinating IYLEP and in search of host families in Boston and Chicago

* Homestay families will represent the diversity of families across the United States. Host "families" can vary in size, age, etc. Single young professionals to large families living with retired grandparents and everyone in between is welcome to host!

Feel free to contact John Schilder at jschilder@gyli.org or 414.530.9118 with any questions.